LEAN THINKING

LEAN THINKING WHITE BELT CERTIFICATION

Class ID#	Dates	Time	Cost
LeanWBcert	4 hours (same day)	8am – noon	$400

Earn the most respected business certification in practice today. If you are in supervision, management, service, quality, training, design/engineering, manufacturing, warehousing or a growing enterprise then become certified in Lean Thinking and help your company become more competitive and more customer and employee driven. A typical annual return on investment with Lean Thinking certification is between 3:1 and 8:1 ROI.

Lean Thinking White Belt Certification is perfect for every employee at all levels of your organization. White Belt Certification gives you the edge to advocate change by talking the new "Lean" language and conducting small and fast "JDI" (Just Do It) type changes to the environment where you work. Once implemented, Lean Thinking permeates all levels of an organization, changing the way everyone – from senior management to front line staff – thinks about eliminating waste, streamlining processes and assuring that every task or activity adds value to the customer.

You'll be taught by a Lean Sensei and Master Black Belt with extensive experience consulting to and training national companies of all types. More than 50% of class time is hands on, and you'll receive a Lean and 5S book as well as the exercise sheets you use to conduct a "waste walk". Take home the ability to initiate lean methods throughout your business.

All industries are welcome! "Lean Thinking" applies to all industries (banking, service, manufacturing, warehousing, retail, IT, insurance, etc.)! Your trainer will teach the class with specific examples in your industry, & coaches you so you leave with high confidence!
